CJCC Intergovernmental Information Sharing Agreement – Update Criminal justice systems are largely administered at the local level comprised of federal, state, local and/or tribal interests. It is because of these differing and often competing interests that the City's Criminal Justice Coordinating Council (CJCC) was operationalized as a separate, legal governing body by Ordinance by the Board of Alderman and signed into law by Mayor Krewson on August 26, 2019. Under this framework, and pursuant to the Ordinance, the named parties formed the CJCC through an Intergovernmental Cooperative Agreement on May 13, 2020. To comply with the Ordinance the named parties are now forming a governance framework to facilitate sharing information across the different local criminal justice agencies and public health agencies. The adoption of an Intergovernmental Information Sharing Agreement builds trust by defining the legal boundaries of data ownership and dissemination across the different domains. Formalizing the sharing of data in a transparent manner removes the roadblocks that often occur to prevent collaboration across the domains. Greg Ramos from Sherman & Howard, LLC and legal counsel representing CJCC interests on this matter will update the Council on the status of this body of work to date.	Greg Ramos	15
Local Criminal Justice Utilization Assessment - Update Individuals with mental illnesses and/or co-occurring substance-use disorders are overrepresented at every stage of the criminal justice process. In response, it is vital that our jurisdiction develop a range of policy and programmatic responses dependent upon collaboration among the criminal justice, mental health, and substance-use treatment systems. A critical component of this cross-system collaboration is information sharing, particularly information about the health and treatment of people with mental illnesses and/or substance-use disorders who are the focus of these responses. At the individual level, health information is essential to provide adequate assessment and treatment. At the program level, it can be used to identify target populations for interventions, evaluate program effectiveness, and determine whether programs are cost-efficient. Through the Department of Justice, Office of Justice Program, Bureau of Justice Assistance Cooperative Agreement (Award No: 2018-AR-BX-K102), and through a	Debbie Allen, Shannon Dunham	15
